SEP 29

São Paulo has a population of 1,400,000 inhabitants. It is the second city of Brazil and the third one of South America. Founded in 1554, São Paulo lately is beating some of the world's records of increasing progress. Having an intense cultural, artistic, scientific and economical life, developing a febrile rhythm in every way, São Paulo must be seen by those who want to observe how it is rising, modern, beautiful and dynamic, one of the largest cities in the world.
